147 Media: The Small Publishing Company with Big Ideas

147 Media Ltd is based just outside of the University City of Cambridge and was launched in September 1999 to publish contact-centres; originally in printed format we subsequently went 'digital' in May 2003 both with the strap line 'everything contact centres'.

Experience of publishing both online and in print format confirmed that the fastest way to get up to date news and information to our subscribers was to concentrate solely on the website – which we did.

We think that we are unique in what we do for the UK contact centre industry.

We ONLY publish news and information about what is happening or available in the UK and aimed at our target of contact centre professionals – Our 'Target' subscriber is responsible for a 100+ seat contact centre, very knowledgeable, extremely busy and passionate about their industry.

We look forward to being of assistance to you and, perhaps more important, the contact centre industry which we are proud to serve.

Background to contact-centres.com

Launched in September 1999 (yes we can't believe it is over 25 years ago!) its aim is to provide up to date news information to the management of UK based contact centres enabling their contact centres 'to perform better tomorrow than it did today'.

Its simple uncluttered design enables our visitors, your prospective clients, to gain the information which they want simply and effectively. This could be, for example, to read the latest news, research a product, service or even apply for a new position.

As we concentrate on publishing editorial content aimed at and applicable to the UK contact centre industry, we promote the website on search engines, such as Google, as 'UK Only'; whilst it would be easy to promote the website worldwide, and of course increase the number of visitors, we choose not to do so as should a sales enquiry be generated by an overseas contact centre would it really be of use to your company?

It's not surprising that over 98% of our website traffic is UK generated.

We Eat, Drink and Sleep contact centres and have seen the industry grow and develop from the humble call centres to the multichannel contact centre that we know today.

Website Statistics (How we're doing)

98.7% of all traffic to contact-centres.com is generated from the United Kingdom.

As we concentrate on publishing editorial content aimed at the UK contact centre industry we promote contact-centres.com on search engines such as Google as 'UK Only'.

Whilst it would be easy for us to promote the website to a Worldwide audience, and subsequently increase the numbers of visitors, we chose not to do so as, for example, a sales enquiry be generated by an overseas contact centre would it really be of use for that company?

Our database has been compiled since the launch of the website back in 1999 and as at 31st December 2024 we have over 10,000 subscribers all of whom are in contact centre management and 10,000 of whom are UK based.

The first e-Shot is normally despatched Tuesday* and subsequently re-sent Thursday* to subscribers who, for example, haven't actioned the first eshot such as opening.

Experience has proved that the first eShot, although read and remembered, is not necessarily actioned upon – the second eShot is remembered, as they received it before, and actioned.

We strictly limit the number of e-Shots sent out per week to ONE – the exception being our weekly newsletter sent out every Friday thus ensuring maximum impact and lead generation.

The e-Shots are competitively costed at £899* per e-Shot (sent out twice, Tuesday & Thursday).

* VAT at time of invoice and is effective 1st January 2025
